Fag: Engelsk
Niveau: 8.-10. klasse

Purpose

To practise your conversational and analytical skills. To reflect on the way the movie uses images to tell its story, and to practise your writing skills.

Exercises

- 1) Write a summary of "Broken" (200 words).
- 2) Discuss the character Skunk with the person sitting next to you. Which qualities does she have as a person? Discuss if Skunk changes during the film. What changes her?
- 3) Catch a partner for a walk and talk. During the walk and talk you and your partner will have a discussion about the title of the film. Why is it called "Broken"? Is it a good title? Discuss how many things are broken in the film.
- 4) Catch a new partner for a walk and talk. Tell your new partner what you just discussed in your previous walk and talk. When you have both talked about the title of the film then you go on to discuss which role 'family' plays in the film.
- 5) Turn to the person sitting behind you. Together you will make an analysis of the pictures below. Look at both light, colors, body language and the facial expressions.
